

Director of Children and Family Ministry Report

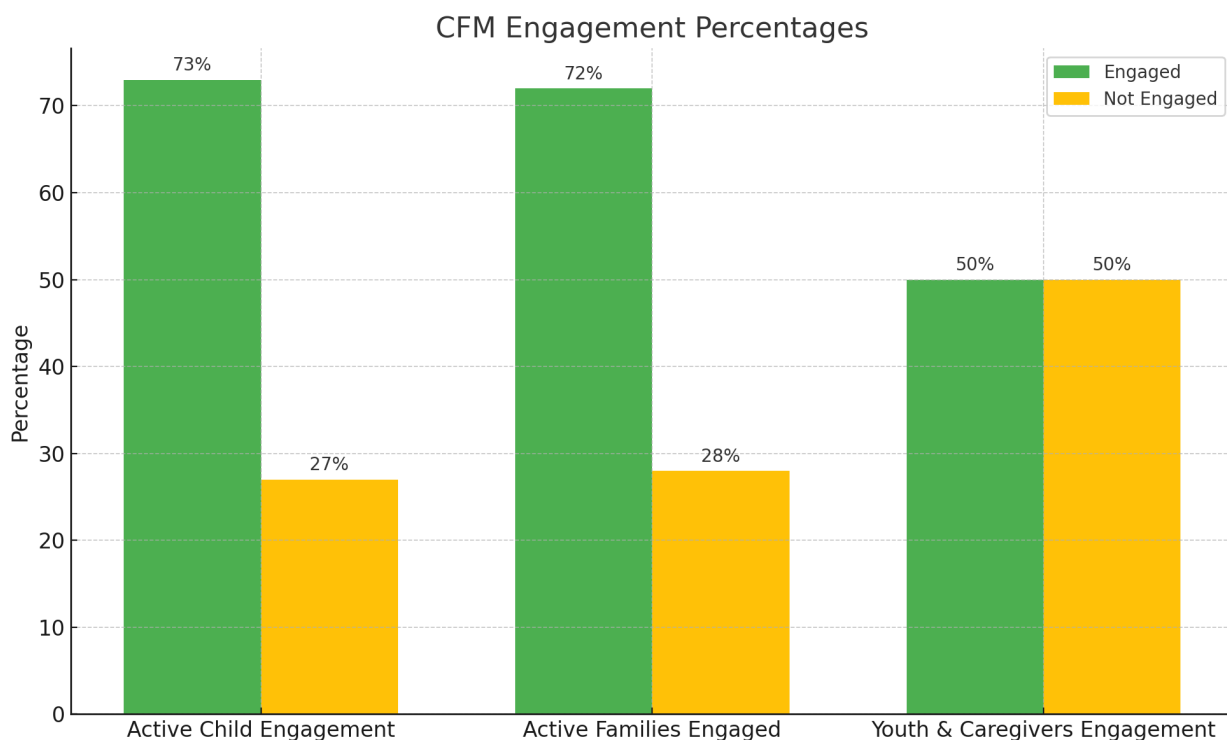

Q1 January 16, 2024 – Q2 March 31st, 2024

The Children and Family Ministry (CFM) plays a crucial role in the vitality and growth of Overbrook Presbyterian Church. Despite the challenges posed by the recent church fire, the CFM has maintained strong engagement and continues to attract and integrate new members. This report will demonstrate the effectiveness of our programming, highlight areas for improvement, and underscore the importance of the CFM in fostering a thriving church community.

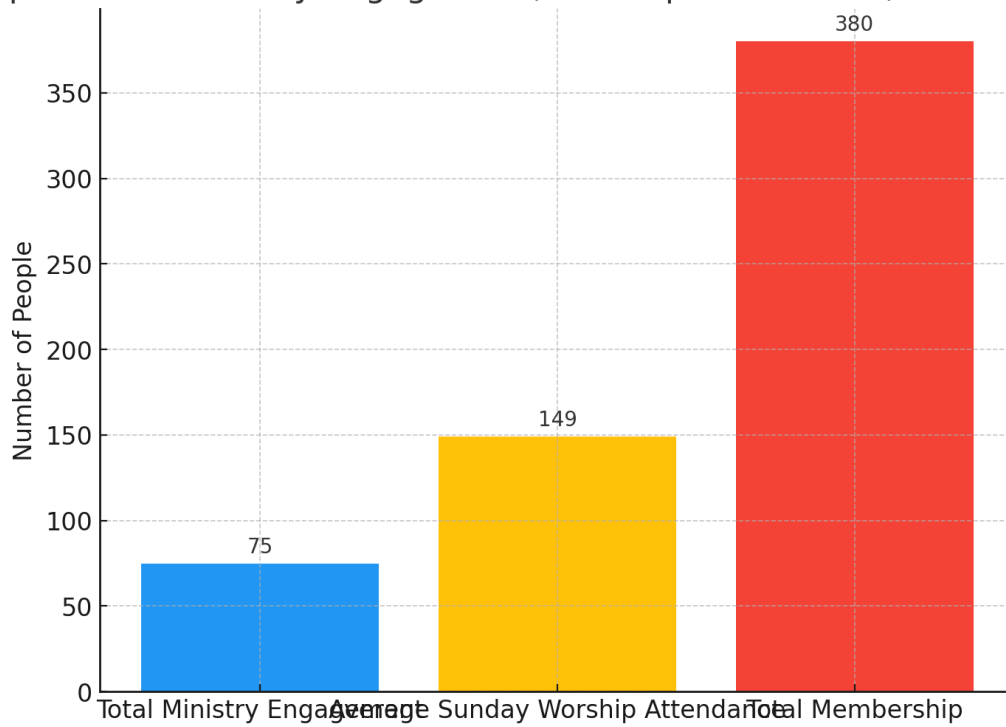

Engagement Analysis

Overbrook Presbyterian Church has 380 active members with an average Sunday attendance of 149 (Session Agenda, March 2024). The CFM consists of 56 active children across 33 families, with a total potential ministry reach of ~115 including youth, caregivers, and volunteers (CFM Statistical Report, December 2023).

In the 78 days following the church fire, the CFM conducted activities across 4 facilities and 3 host residences. Despite these challenges, 73% of active children (41/56) and 72% of active families (22/33) were engaged in ministry opportunities this quarter. Overall, 75 individuals participated in or led CFM programming, representing 50% of average Sunday attendance and 20% of total church membership. While the CFM's engagement rates are impressive, there is still room for improvement, particularly in engaging youth and caregivers, whose participation currently stands at 50%. Targeting this demographic with tailored programming and outreach efforts could further boost overall multigenerational engagement and strengthen the church community.

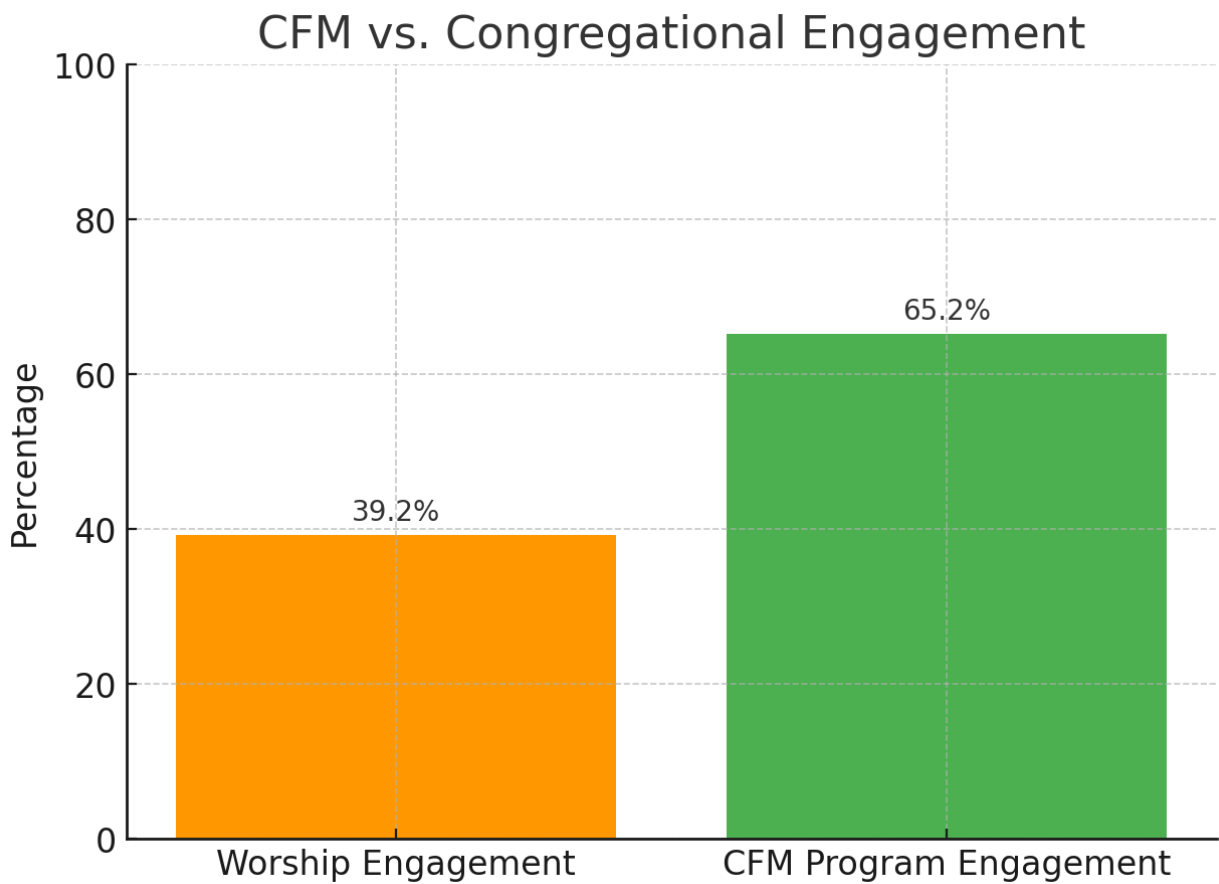

Comparison of Ministry Engagement, Worship Attendance, and Membership

Breakdown of Individuals Participating and Leading CFM Programming

Notably, 65.2% of the total CFM population was engaged compared to 39.2% of the overall church membership attending Sunday worship. This data highlights the critical role of the CFM in driving engagement and participation within the church community.

Impact on Church Growth

New membership data further emphasizes the significance of the CFM in attracting and integrating new families. The majority of new families joining the church have children in the CFM age range, with over 70% of individuals in new member families having some level of CFM involvement (1st or 2nd degree). This demonstrates that the CFM serves as a significant draw and integration point for these households.

It is important to note that ~19 post-fire newcomer families are not included in this report, suggesting an even greater potential for growth and engagement through the CFM.

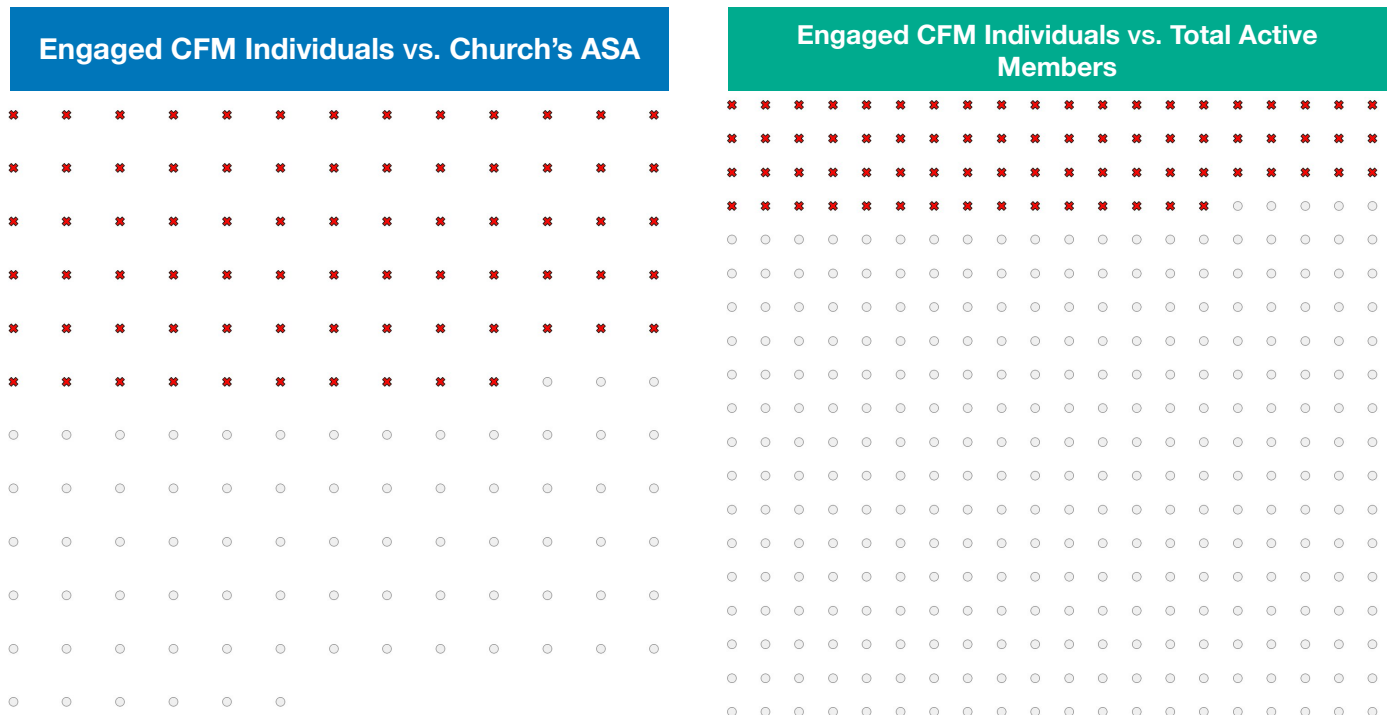

Areas for Improvement and Next Steps

While the CFM's engagement rates are impressive, there is still room for improvement, particularly in engaging youth and caregivers, whose participation currently stands at 50%. Targeting this demographic with tailored programming and outreach efforts could further boost overall engagement and strengthen the church community.

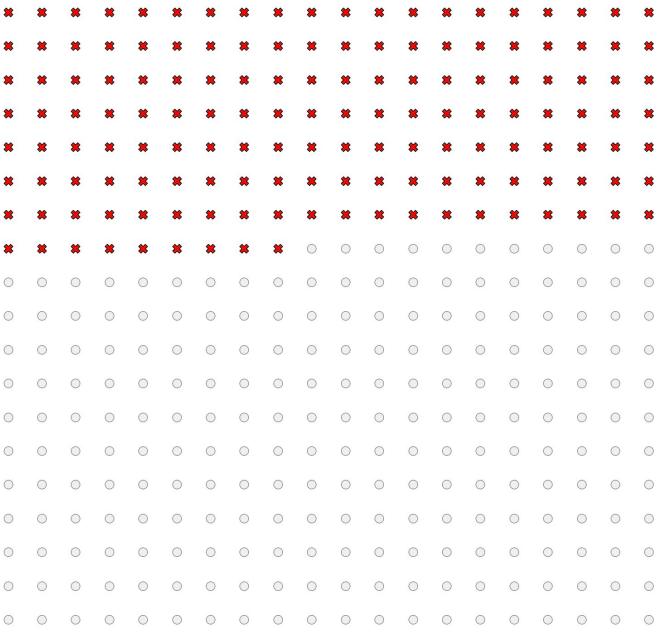

Additionally, continuing to support CFM Staff and Volunteers is crucial, as they are the backbone enabling the ministry's current success and potential for further growth. Investing in their training, resources, and well-being will ensure the sustainability and long-term impact of the CFM.

Conclusion

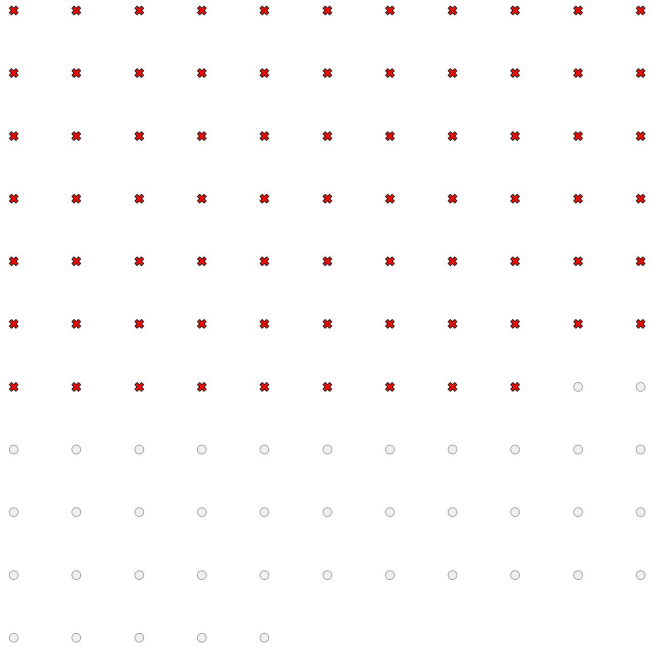

The Children and Family Ministry is a driving force behind Overbrook Presbyterian Church's vitality, engagement, and growth. Despite recent challenges, the CFM has demonstrated resilience and effectiveness in fostering participation and attracting new members. By addressing areas for improvement and supporting the CFM staff and volunteers, the CFM can continue to thrive and play a pivotal role in the church's future success.
